

Edited by Julia M. Puauschunder

Intergenerational Responsibility in the 21st Century

VERNON SERIES IN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Summary

Intergenerational responsibility is multi-faceted. This edited volume reflects intergenerational aspects in light of spatial, age and racial segregation, global warming, and the aging Western world population. Intergenerational global governance is addressed in the era of globalization and migration. The intergenerational glue, intergenerational crises resilience strategies and intergenerational responses to external shocks serve as innovative global responsibility implementation guidelines in the international arena. Fostering intergenerational harmony through intergenerational income mobility and intergenerational opportunities, environmental protection and sustainable development aids alleviate the most pressing contemporary challenges of humankind. Overall, this interdisciplinary and applied contribution to the scholarship on intergenerational responsibility supports the leadership and management of global governance agency in the private and public sectors.

About the editor

Julia Margarete Puauschunder studied Philosophy/Psychology, Business, Public Administration, Social and Economic Sciences, Natural Sciences, Law and Economics. Julia M. Puauschunder has launched and administered research projects in Australia, Austria, Canada, China, Germany, Indonesia, Switzerland, and the United States. Before starting a Prize Fellowship in the Inter-University Consortium of New York working for the New School and Columbia University, Julia M. Puauschunder held positions at the University of Vienna and the Vienna University of Economics and Business. For several years she was an Associate of the Harvard University Faculty of Arts and Sciences. At the Harvard University Center for the Environment, she conducted research on intergenerational equity in cooperation with Harvard Business School and Harvard Kennedy School. Currently she serves as Contributor to the Harvard Law School Law and Mind Sciences Initiative Situationist. Trained as a behavioral economist with Doctorates in Social and Economic Sciences as well as Natural Sciences and Masters in Business, Public Administration, and Philosophy/Psychology, she has over 15 years of experience in applied social sciences empirical research in the international arena. Julia M. Puauschunder is as an expert member of the Academic Council on the United Nations System, the European Corporate Governance Institute and the Virtus Corporate Governance Experts Global Repository. Throughout her academic career, Julia was invited to present her research at Harvard University, Princeton University, Columbia University, Brown University, Oxford University and Cambridge University as well as The Academic Council on the United Nations System. She published with Harvard University, Columbia University and Oxford University outlets among other distinct journals and international publishing houses. Julia is included in the '2018 Marquis Who's Who in America and the World' among the top 3% professionals around the globe. After having captured social responsibility in corporate and financial markets in Europe and North America with attention to Financial Social Responsibility and Socially Responsible Investment; Julia Puauschunder currently pursues the idea of Eternal Equity – responding to Western world intergenerational equity constraints in the domains of environmental sustainability, over-indebtedness and demographic aging with focus on law and mind sciences.

June 2018 | Hardback 236x160mm | 330 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-62273-102-2

SUBJECTS Intergenerational relationships, Sustainability, Economic Development

VIEW/ORDER ONLINE AT vernonpress.com/book/135

$ 65

€ 53

£ 47

12% DISCOUNT ONLINE
USE CODE AT CHECKOUT

FLYPR12

VERNON PRESS
www.vernonpress.com